

Smaragda Skoulou holds a BA in English Literature and Teaching from the University of Indianapolis, Athens Campus. She has successfully attended the teacher training courses Methodology I & II at the HAU. She also holds a certificate in Professional Translation and a certificate in Audiovisual Translation and has recently completed the Diploma in Professional Translation from the IoL. She has been an EFL teacher at many levels for the past six years and is in her second year as a TESOL Greece Board member.